

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA
CASE NO. 25-60128-CR-DIMITROULEAS

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

DENNARD DOBARD,

Defendant.

DETENTION ORDER

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), on June 6, 2025, the undersigned held a hearing to determine whether the Defendant Dennard Dobard should be detained prior to trial. At the conclusion of the hearing, the undersigned orally ordered Defendant detained. Having considered the factors enumerated in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g), this Court finds that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the Defendant's appearance at trial or the safety of the community. Therefore, it is hereby ordered that Defendant Dennard Dobard be detained prior to trial and until the conclusion thereof.

In accordance with the provisions of 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i), this Court hereby makes the following findings of fact and statement of reasons for the detention:

1. 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g)(1) -- Nature and Circumstances of the Offense.

Defendant was charged by way of indictment with conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute 28 grams or more of cocaine base/crack cocaine and five substantive counts of distribution of crack cocaine. The conspiracy count carries a maximum penalty of 40 years imprisonment with a mandatory minimum of five years' imprisonment.¹ The substantive counts each carry a maximum of 20 years with no minimum. A rebuttable presumption arises based upon a probable cause finding that a defendant committed an offense under Title 21 with a maximum penalty of ten years or more. 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(3)(A). Based upon the return of an indictment by the grand jury, United States v. Hurtado, 779 F.2d 1467, 1479 (11th Cir. 1985), as well as the proffer and evidence presented at the hearing, this Court finds that the government has established probable cause in this case, therefore the presumption applies. 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) (1).

2. 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) (2) -- Weight of the Evidence. The weight of the evidence against this Defendant is strong. At the hearing, the Government proceeded by way of proffer, with FBI Special Agent Chelsea Hibsch then made available for cross-examination. The evidence shows that Defendant and other coconspirators are allegedly members of Zone 10, a violent street gang responsible for drug distribution, identity theft and fraud, and acts of violence, including murders. According to the Broward Sheriff's Office, Dobard is a documented member of Zone 10. The gang allegedly operated multiple "trap houses," including the house at issue here. Evidence shows that on March 19, 2025, Dobard participated in the sale of 5.7 grams of crack cocaine to a confidential human source (CHS), who was equipped with recording equipment. On March 25, 2025, Dobard participated in the sale of 5.8 grams of crack cocaine to the CHS, again using video and audio equipment. On April 2, 2025, Dobard participated in the sale of 7.6 grams of crack cocaine to the CHS, again recorded. On April 8, 2025, Dobard participated in the sale of 6.2 grams of crack cocaine to the CHS, again using recording devices. And on April 23, 2025, Dobard participated in the sale of 6.1 grams of crack cocaine to the CHS, with this transaction recorded as well. On May 12, 2025, law enforcement executed a search warrant on the house and recovered approximately 50 grams of crack cocaine, 120 grams of marijuana, a Taurus pistol, and about $3,000 in U.S. currency. Law enforcement is in the process of analyzing DNA to determine whether any of the coconspirators can be linked to the firearm. 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g)(2).

3. 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g)(3) -- History and Characteristics of the Defendant. Dennard Dobard was born in 1998 in Hollywood, Florida. He is a lifelong resident of South Florida. He currently lives in Hallandale Beach with his mother. Defendant's mother is a hotel manager. His father is deceased. He has six siblings. He is single and has no children. He attended high school through the tenth grade but did not graduate or earn a diploma. He has been unemployed since 2022. He reports to be in excellent physical health and reports no mental health history. However, Pretrial Services reports that Dobard was found incompetent to stand trial in a state case in or around 2013, with no further information available. He reports daily cannabis use. Dobard's criminal history begins at the age of 12, with multiple juvenile adjudications and adult convictions for grand theft auto, resisting/obstructing without violence, and inciting a riot. He has a pending state case for aggravated battery/great bodily harm. He has multiple capias warrants 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g)(3)(A) and (B).

4. 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g)(4) -- Danger to any Person or the Community.

Based on the statutory presumption and the unrebutted evidence, which showed Defendant delivered crack cocaine on five separate occasions, coupled with his criminal record and credible evidence that he is affiliated with a violent gang, the undersigned finds that Defendant poses a danger to the community. Based upon the statutory presumption and the unrebutted evidence, the lengthy sentence he is facing, and his previous capias warrants, the undersigned also finds that Defendant poses a risk of flight. 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g)(4).

5. Based upon the above findings of fact, which were supported by the appropriate evidentiary standards (clear and convincing for danger to the community; preponderance for risk of flight), the undersigned specifically finds that there are no conditions or combination of conditions of release that reasonably will assure Defendant's appearance at trial or the safety of the community. 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e).

The Court hereby directs:

- (a) That the Defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practical, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (b) That the Defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel; and

(c) That, on order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the Defendant is confined deliver the Defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

DONE AND ORDERED at Fort Lauderdale, Florida, this 17th day of June, 2025.
